Healthwatch wants to hear your ideas

- Healthwatch Wokingham wants to invest in grassroots projects by individuals or groups that aim to improve the health & wellbeing of local people.
- There's no need to be a registered charity or an official group.
- We'll be judging applications on how well we think they could contribute to improving people's wellbeing.
- It would be great if your project relates in some way to emotional wellbeing/mental health
- Projects do not have to be expensive or complicated
- Application process is easy and straightforward
- If interested send in a short description of your project idea & the amount of funding with a breakdown of costs to
